Do ye know a little town where the boycott hit the floor?

Keep your eye on the S. J. and watch it grow.

A pretty fair line of advertising for a boycotted paper.

There is a great deal of graveyard whistling around the edges these days.

When trading with our advertisers please mention that you saw it in the SENTINEL.

Scissors sharpened and made to cut like new; 10c a pair. R. E. Goodwin, at Richey's store.

Alert business men are sitting up and taking notice these times. Business, not spite, is their motto.

The man who pays for his paper, reads it. Shrewd advertisers call for a "paid-up" list these days. We've got it.

Our subscription list is a large one, a paid-up one, and covers the county like the dew. Advertisers take notice. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Some of the Pickens merchants go a long ways around to inform us that trade never has been so good. We were under the impression that with the panic, low price of cotton, public works on short time and the busy season with the farmers, that trade was a little quiet.

The second quarterly conference for Pickens circuit will be held at Bethlehem, Monday, April 11. Rev. W. M. Duncan, pastor, will preach at 11 o'clock. All the stewards, deacons, S. S. superintendents and other officials of the church are requested to be present. The friends of the community are asked to provide dinner on grounds. Let us have the best financial reports the charge has ever made.

N. G. BALLINGER, Pastor.

Pickens County Democracy.

The county Democratic convention met in the courthouse, Monday, and was called to order by County Chairman C. E. Robinson.

The convention was organized by the election of C. E. Robinson, chairman, and A. J. Boggs, secretary and treasurer.

A committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of Dr. R. F. Smith, Matthew Hendricks and T. J. Mauldin.

The committee retired, and soon reported a roll of the delegates, which was adopted.

Dr. R. F. Smith was elected vice-president and a member of the State executive committee.

Delegates to the State convention to be held in Columbia on the 20th inst. were elected as follows: C. E. Robinson, R. F. Smith, J. P. Carey, B. J. Johnston, C. T. Martin and E. P. McCrary, who were empowered to fill their places in the event of inability to attend.

The clubs of the county were called, and the following only reported members of the county executive committee: Pickens, T. J. Mauldin; Easley, R. F. Smith; Liberty, J. T. Boggs; Central, R. G. Gaines; Catechee, J. P. Smith; Calhoun, W. A. Boggs; Six Mile, M. B. Garrett; Praters, J. E. Gillespie; Mile Creek, L. R. Dalton; Eastatoee, A. T. Winchester; Pumpkintown,

J. D. Simmons; Hogsd's Store, J. R. Latham; Peters' Creek, B. A. Foster; Cross Plains, J. F. Williams.

C. E. Robinson was elected chairman of the county executive committee.

C. T. Martin offered the following resolution:

Whereas, we recognize in W. J. Bryan the embodiment of the true principles of Democracy; that we believe he is the most available man to become the standard-bearer of the party in 1908, and believing that if any man can win at the approaching election he can; therefore, be it Resolved, by the Democratic convention of Pickens county: That we heartily indorse the candidacy of Col. Bryan for the presidency, and that the delegates from this convention to the State convention be instructed to vote for delegates to the National convention instructed to vote for him.

On motion of W. T. Bowen, the convention unanimously indorsed Hon. W. J. Bryan for the presidency.

Fred Williams offered the following resolution, which was tabled without discussion:

Resolved, by the Democrats of Pickens county in convention assembled: That the Democratic executive committee of Pickens county be required to submit the whisky question to the Democratic voters in the approaching primary election in the following form, to-wit: County dispensary: license; manufacture and sale, unrestricted by state laws; prohibition.

Resolved, That the delegates from Pickens county be and are hereby instructed to endeavor to have this question submitted to the voters of the State.

B. J. Johnston offered the following resolution, which, after discussion, was tabled:

Whereas, on the 1st day of April, 1908, over 300 students of Clemson College broke the rules of the college and absented themselves from the campus during the day, in violation of the rules of the college; and in so doing we realize that they did wrong in rebelling against constituted authority. As we realize that discipline is essential in all of our public schools and colleges and would not place ourselves on record as condoning what is known as the college spirit, or a spirit of insubordination;

And whereas, we believe that a great many widowed mothers and sisters have made great sacrifices in order to get the means to send their sons and brothers to Clemson, the poor man's college, to have them educated, and to have their fondest hopes blighted, their hearts crushed with grief and their sons and brothers disgraced by expulsion for this little innocent escapade;

And whereas, we think the punishment was out of all proportion to the offence committed, in view of the lax and loose-twisted discipline that had been maintained at this college prior to this, as offences of a much more serious and aggravated nature had not only been condoned and winked at, but actually apologized for; therefore, be it

Resolved, by this convention: That the authorities at Clemson be requested to reinstate those expelled students in September; and in the event they fail to do so, that steps be taken by the State to withhold its appropriations from the college.

The resolution below was sent up by the Easley Club, and, after discussion, was tabled:

That the chairman of the Democratic convention of Pickens county be required to publish in the newspapers of the county immediately after the close of the second primary election a sworn itemized statement of all money received by him, by whom paid in, to whom paid out and for what purpose.

On motion, it was decided to establish a voting precinct at the Central Cotton Mill.

The request for a voting precinct at or near Flat Rock church was referred to the executive committee with power to act.

The business being finished, the convention adjourned.

A Great Meeting.

One of the most far-reaching, uplifting and soul saving meetings in this town for many years past, if not in all its history, closed at the Baptist Church last Sunday night. The meeting began in the Methodist Church, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. N. G. Ballenger, assisted by Rev. P. F. Crawford pastor of the Baptist Church, and lasted nearly two weeks, closing Friday night before the last fourth Sunday.

On the fourth Sunday the meeting was continued at the Baptist Church pastor Crawford in charge assisted by the pastor of the Methodist Church and Rev. D. W. Hiott of Easley. The interest and power increased with every service. The attendance steadily grew and at the last service Sunday night the Baptist Church would not hold the people. At every service numbers of people inquired the way of life, asked for prayer, and when opportunity was given would connect themselves with the church. Many strongholds of Satan were wrecked and the powers of darkness overthrown.

As a result of the meeting more than sixty professed Christ, six or eight uniting with the Presbyterian Church, and nineteen with the Methodist Church, and thirty four with the Baptist Church. Those who joined the Methodist Church will be received next Sunday, and those who joined the Baptist Church will be baptised the fourth Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the pool below the jail.

There was no excitement, no strenuous efforts and no undue influence in the meeting, but it was evident to those attending that the Spirit of God was present at every service in great power doing his work in the hearts of the people. At the last service Sunday night great interest was manifested, and many were asking for prayer.

To show their appreciation of the services of the pastors of the Methodist and Baptist churches in this meeting an offering was made Sunday night to them of $35.00 or more. May seed sown continue to bear fruit.
